

The adjectives used by K-Love to describe their radio station are positive and encouraging. That is the type of radio station that I personally need when at times day to day life can be so draining in a world such as ours. I try to be a positive influence not only to my family, but to the community that I live in. Listening to K-Love is sometimes the only encouraging word I hear during the course of the day and I know of no other radio station that can fulfill that need not only in my life, but also in the lives of others in the community who wish to make a difference to those around them. There is so little in our society that provides what K-Love provides, please do not replace it. Please please please do not replace it.
